THE ELECTORAL CONSPIRACY BUBBLE EXPLODED.

... Before the Electoral Bill provided that each House should appoint five of its members who with five associate Justices of the Supreme Court of the United States should constitute a commission to determine which was the true and lawful electoral vote of those states from which more than one paper purporting to be a return of electoral votes had been received,—each member being required solemnly to swear or affirm that he would impartially examine and consider all questions submitted to the Commission and a true judgment given thereon agreeably to the Constitution and the laws. The members of the Supreme Court of the United States appointed by the act were four—Justices Clifford, Miller, Field and Strong,—and they, or a majority of them were to select another of the associate Justices of the court. They unanimously selected Mr Justice Bradley. The duty imposed upon these five Justices was delicate and to them, painful. It was not sought by either and those to whom they are personally known can never doubt that each and all would gladly have avoided its burden and responsibility. They occupied that position by the deliberate choice of the representatives of a vast majority of the Democratic party, and were entitled to the respect and protection of all its honorable members.

Judge Black has studiously misrepresented the powers and duties of the Electoral Commission and the questions it was authorized to decide, and has thus manufactured a pretext for denouncing as the result of corrupt partisanship the conclusions of a majority of its members. He insists that they were bound by their duty and their oath to disregard the findings of the Returning Boards of Florida and Louisiana and that in adopting them a great infamy was accomplished and the frauds covered up. To cast odium and reproach upon the majority, he asserts that those Boards and especially that of Louisiana, reached results by wicked and corrupt means, and that in adopting them, with knowledge of this, and of their duty to ascertain the votes for electors by other and independent proof, the Eight were participants in the guilt of those tribunals. A brief examination of the powers and jurisdiction of the Commission will show that, had the course he suggests been adopted, the Constitution of the United States and the independence of States would have been violated, whilst, as will hereafter clearly appear, his assaults upon the Returning Boards and their authors are without foundation.

What, then, was the jurisdiction, what the duty, of the Commission? It is provided by the Constitution of the United States ...

"... state shall appoint, in such manner as the Legislature thereof may direct, a number of electors of President and Vice-President equal to the whole number of Senators and Representatives to which the State may be entitled in the Congress." There is also the further provision ...

"... Congress may determine the time of choosing the electors, and the day on which they shall give their votes, which day shall be the same throughout the United States."

We thus have the powers of the State and of Congress clearly distributed and defined. The State shall appoint electors in such manner as the Legislature thereof ...

... The power of the Legislature to pass such a law cannot be doubted ... been passed upon by the Supreme Court of Louisiana, the highest judicial tribunal of that State, in the following terms: ...

The Legislature has seen proper to lodge the power to declare who have been elected in the Returning Board.

The question before the Commission was not had the American people a right to elect their chief magistrate, nor what was the vote for electors at the polls in Florida or Louisiana—for in both States substantially the same Returning Boards existed—but who were appointed electors by those States and by the State of Oregon in such manner as their Legislatures had directed. A State acts and speaks through its officers duly constituted and the canvass and declaration by the Returning Boards of Louisiana and Florida and by the Secretary of State of Oregon were the acts and declarations of those States. They could thus and only thus manifest their will to appoint electors; and those declared to be such, by Returning Boards or Officers having exclusive power so to do, were appointed by those States in the manner directed by their Legislatures.

The decision of the majority of the Commission was throughout harmonious, consistent and based upon the constitutional requirement—never for a moment overlooked or disregarded—of ascertaining who by each State had been appointed its electors in such manner as the Legislature thereof had directed. This could be ascertained only by learning to whom such Legislature had confided the power and the duty of making and declaring their appointment. Neither in Louisiana nor in Florida could this be determined but by the action of the Returning Boards nor in Oregon but by the action of the Secretary of State. The duty of ascertaining, counting, and declaring the electoral vote had been confided to the Commission, but not the power or duty of revising the action of State tribunals. These were supreme, acting under and bound to obey the laws of the States creating them to which neither the Commission nor Congress was in any manner subject ...

With his usual positiveness Judge Black asserts that in Florida the statute creating the Returning Board gave it only ministerial powers, and no authority to reject votes actually cast for any cause whatever; and that the Supreme Court of that State had so decided. He also averred with equal assurance that the Returning Board of Louisiana acted under a void statute, and without the least authority to do what it performed; and this in the face of a decision of the highest court of that State. Party passion and professional defeat, inspire reckless statements. That of Judge ...

... Are these causes which led to the creation of the Returning Board then ... Judge Black or ... to be found in the wicked attempts of the party to which he belongs to attain its ascendency by violence, intimidation, outrage and murder, and the utter extinction of those privileges of citizenship intended to be secured by the Fifteenth Constitutional Amendment? Was that Amendment, as he states it, assertive of the divine right of the negro to govern the white man, or an effort to relieve the colored race from that subjection to the whites which the divine law condemns? Whatever may be the authority for the Amendment every honest and law abiding citizen is bound to aid in its enforcement. A nation which fails to put forth all its strength to protect its citizens, white or black, from foreign aggression and outrage stands degraded before the world. When the island of them are shot down within its own borders for attempting to exercise the right to vote, what shall we say of the government which fails to vindicate its law thus violated? The State of Louisiana attempted, by the legislation in question to make it unprofitable for a political party to practice outrage or intimidation. It in part succeeded, and yet grave crimes were committed in that State, during the last Presidential election, that it might be carried for the Democratic candidates. That this was so is a conclusion forced upon us by a few general but very impressive facts, independent of the conclusive proofs taken by the Returning Board and by the Congressional Committees. Republican Caucus.

The Republican voters of the City of Bangor are requested to meet in caucus, in

CITY HALL,

Friday Evening Next, Sept. 7th, at 7½ o'cl'k, for the purpose of nominating three candidates for Representatives to the next Legislature, and to choose a City Committee for the year 1878.

JAMES WOODBURY, Chairman City Committee.

Sept. 1, 1877.

THE REPUBLICAN CAUCUS TO-NIGHT.

We direct attention to the call for the general Republican caucus at City Hall this evening, to nominate candidates for Representatives to the Legislature, and urge a full attendance. This will be the first and only public assemblage of the Republicans of Bangor, in the present campaign, and we hope to see them gather in full force to prepare for the election of next Monday. The harmony and success of the party should be the first thought of all, and when we have completed our ticket there should be united and vigorous effort to bring out the largest possible vote. A rousing Republican caucus is always a presage of victory, and we hope to see such an one to-night.

ONE-SIDED CONCILIATION.

Now the Washington despatches deny that the President perceives any violation of Wade Hampton's pledges in the persecution of prominent Republicans. The Journal's despatch states semi-officially:

When the troops were withdrawn no pledges were asked or given, which would prevent legal proceedings against those who had violated the laws of the State and rendered themselves liable to criminal prosecution, and when Wade Hampton and M. C. Butler were last here the President heard them talk at length in regard to the pending prosecutions, but failed to discover any vindictiveness on the part of either, or any desire, other than that of having violators of State laws punished.

Will our readers please look at that statement a moment? The President invents the assumption that the victims of the Hamptonite persecution "had violated the laws of the State," and in defence of the star chamber indictments asserts that no pledges were given that would "prevent legal proceedings against those who had rendered themselves liable to criminal prosecution." With the notorious facts of a conspiracy to wreak vengeance through partisan courts upon every leading Republican in South Carolina who risked his life in securing the election of Hayes and Wheeler, staring the public in the face, the President in whose behalf they incurred the hatred of the White Liners, coolly says that he had a long talk with Wade Hampton and Butcher Butler, of the Hamburg massacre, and "failed to discover any vindictiveness on the part of either." In fact he thinks those high-toned and gentle patriots have no "desire, other than that of having violators of State laws punished!" This, concerning a revolutionist who has overthrown a legal State Government by armed violence, and a red-handed and cowardly scoundrel who but a few months ago added a darker tinge even to the disgrace of South Carolina, by the cold-blooded massacre of defenceless men!

But how about this rule of "conciliation" which seems framed to work only on one side? If the terms of the compact by which the President of the United States gave practical aid and tacit assent to the usurpation of the Government of South Carolina by the leader of the Rifle Club rebellion involved no interference with the punishment of persons "who had rendered themselves liable to criminal prosecutions," how is it that the President felt called upon to interfere with the prosecution of the perpetrators of gross crimes in the United States Courts, and to suggest that such action would be in the interest of harmony? Among the horrors of the late campaign in South Carolina the fiendish work at Ellenton was only equalled by that at Hamburg. Concerning it the Boston Advertiser recently declared, in comment upon the railroad riots:

"Not so many men had been killed in either Maryland or West Virginia before the call for troops was made, as were killed at Coushatta, ELLENTON, or New Orleans, or various other places where the Democracy undertook to intimidate the negroes."

The perpetrators of these Ellenton outrages were indicted in the United States Court, the only place in South Carolina where there was any hope of punishing the murderers of Republicans. The Hampton Legislature immediately interposed an appeal to the President to cause the abandonment of these cases in the interest of "conciliation," and on May 11th, Wade Hampton telegraphed the request to Washington. With eager haste the President sent a reply on the next day conveying assurance of his desire to please the "chivalry." In that reply he said:

"I am informed by the Attorney-General that he has instructed the District Attorney of South Carolina to prepare for trial only three indictments in the Ellenton case, and to notify the parties in all other cases that they need not prepare for trial. It is possible that only one case will be tried."

The message concluded as follows:

"I agree with you that a general amnesty should extend to all political offences except those of the gravest character.

R. B. HAYES, President."

One case was tried. The Chief Justice presided and during his stay was treated with the most marked incivility by the "conciliated" Carolinians. The trial resulted in a failure to convict, simply because South Carolina juries refuse to regard the killing of Republicans as "offences of a grave character." The proceedings came to a pause, and after a while another "conciliation" movement was started. On the 1st of August, the Boston Journal informs us, a delegation from South Carolina waited on the President and asked him to cause to be dismissed the cases recently tried by Chief Justice Waite, and assured him that "the State authorities propose to dismiss a number of political suits brought in local courts against Republicans." The despatch reports that "the President expressed much satisfaction at the improved condition of things in South Carolina," and that the delegation left boasting that he "promised to take their request into consideration."

This was a prompt and gracious response to an appeal for the shielding of brutal ruffians and assassins who had created a hell upon earth in communities entitled to the protection of the laws of the United States, and the President treats it as in pursuance of a "general amnesty to all political offences except those of the gravest character." But, when Hampton and Butcher Butler conspire with perjured witnesses, secret intrigues, packed juries and corrupt courts to hunt down and persecute the leading Republicans of the State, on trumped up charges of malfeasance, the President suddenly recollects that the "pledges" did not cover the cases of persons "liable to criminal prosecutions." Can any reasonable man have patience with such a melancholy "mush of conciliation" as this?

In the name of New England common-sense, we ask the President what he regards as a "political offence of the gravest character"? As he intimates that the "amnesty" should not extend to the Republican officials charged with various acts of dishonesty, it seems plain that he applies the extreme designation to these alleged offences; but what are we to think of the willingness to extend "amnesty" to the Ellenton outlaws? Has "conciliation" actually progressed to that point where the malfeasance of an official or an act of political corruption, even if proved, are regarded as "gravest offences" than the systematic slaughtering of peaceable citizens? What answer can be made?

It is because the entire ramifications of the so-called "conciliation policy" have formed a continuous maze of just such stultification of every principle of justice and every dictate of reason, that we have raised our voice in emphatic protest against it. It has been from the beginning and is to-day neither more nor less than the unconditional surrender of every power of the National Government, military or judicial, which could afford protection to Republican citizens in the South, responded to by a constant increase of arrogance and vindictiveness on the part of those who reorganized as Ku-Klux after they surrendered as Confederates, and to propitiate whom a great Government has ignored its highest obligations, humiliated itself before swaggering banditti, and offered up Justice itself as a sacrifice on the altar of "conciliation!"

It is said that under certain conditions people may become "color blind," so that what appears black to the ordinary eye, may seem dazzling white to the diseased vision. It is only upon the hypothesis that a portion of the Northern people are suffering some such disorder of the mental process, that we can account for the blind zeal with which Republicans are found defending and sustaining a so-called "policy" which has set aside the fundamental principles of the party, and which has substituted for them a jumble of subserviency and sophistry that is abhorrent to every conception of the dignity of the Republic, to every impulse of loyal manhood and to every sentiment of devotion to the supremacy of Justice and the maintenance of Equal Rights.

AN OUTSPOKEN SENATOR.

A KANSAS OPINION OF THE ADMINISTRATION.

[Special Cor. to Chicago Tribune.]

LEAVENWORTH, Kas., Aug. 31. The speech of Senator Ingalls at Oswatomie yesterday at the unveiling of the John Brown monument was a very brilliant effort. It has excited considerable comment because of his strictures on the Administration were very severe. It is evident that the Senator is opposed to President Hayes' Southern policy. Being a United States Senator and of considerable prominence, his utterances are worthy of attention. Referring to the New England tour the Senator said:

When a repentant rebel is caged as a Cabinet Minister and made the chief attraction of a peripatetic menagerie, called out at every railroad station and compelled to speak his little declamation like a naughty puppy by his master, telling the multitude that he has been very wicked but means to do better, and hopes in time to be a good Yankee, the spectacle is edifying and instructive. The emotions of the captive may be imagined, and the response of the South is significantly solid.

In referring to the other measures of the Administration, he says:

A school of political pigmies, whom Providence, for some inscrutable purpose, has placed in power, are endeavoring to pacify the country by debauching its convictions, by asserting that those who sought to overthrow and destroy the government are more entitled to its favors than those who sacrificed all to uphold it; by attempting to obliterate the distinction between right and wrong, and to repeal the laws of God. They are seeking to put the new wine of 1877 into the old bottles of 1860, with the probability of the ultimate loss of both receptacles and contents.

Well, well what next? They have got a rumor circulating quite lively down South that Ben Hill is likely to be the next Republican candidate for President!—Boston Journal.

The fellows down there have very naturally come to that conclusion after reading the Boston Journal and similar "Republican" papers.

The Democratic organs are after our Central st. neighbor in full chorus. Thursday's editions of the Argus, Standard, Maine Democrat, and Belfast Journal, all being filled with explosives directed at him. The Standard and Belfast Journal seem to have joined hands in the assault, as the long editorial of the latter was printed in the former on the same day, evidently from the proof sheets. Our neighbor is receiving queer "compliments" from his party associates, and will have to burnish up his weapons. We shall make some choice extracts from this Democratic literature hereafter.

The Commercial still waves the flag of revolt, and in its columns are filled with such pointed remarks as these:

The Chairman of the Democratic State Committee has prescribed a poisoned chalice to the lips of the Democracy of Maine. Those who drink of it next Monday may find it "sweet in the mouth," but it will be "bitter in the belly." Those who cast it aside will do well.

Should the first returns from Monday's election be a little unfavorable to Williams, those who have confidence in the strategy of Mr. Chairman Pillsbury must not be disheartened. He does not rely on the cities to demonstrate the wisdom of his masterly scheme. His faith is in the rural districts and Kennebec County. Wait till you hear from Madawaska and the regions about Cobbosseecontee Pond.

If a Solicitor of the Treasury Department under President Grant had been brought before a Police Court and fined $20 for a street brawl, we think the Pharisee press would have moralized very solemnly upon it. But President Hayes' "trusted" Solicitor Talbot for the express purpose of appointing the Hon. Kenneth Raynor to "elevate the standard of the public service," and "Reform," in his person was mulcted $20 in the Washington Police Court Wednesday for indulging in the Carolina privilege of a free fight.

MR. WILLIAMS' LAST PUBLIC APPEARANCE.

[Letter in Portland Press.]

I well remember Mr. Williams' last public appearance. The Legislature of 1876, upon the suggestion of Gov. Dingley under the advice of leading financial men in the State, recommended that one of the State sinking funds be dropped. The reason urged for this proposition was that the bonds which the Treasurer was obliged to purchase for the sinking funds commanded a premium of from 7 to 20 per cent., and that at the maturity the bonds could be funded in securities bearing a lower rate of interest. In short, it was for the tax payers of Maine to adopt the policy suggested by Governor Dingley as it would save the State from $12,000 to $15,000 a year which must be paid as premium on the bonds purchased for the sinking funds.

The matter was brought before an able Finance Committee and after full consideration they voted to report a bill to that end. After the committee had practically decided the matter, they received notice that the opponents of the measure would like to be heard. A meeting was appointed for a hearing and two gentlemen appeared to oppose the measure—Hon. Joseph H. Williams and Postmaster Goddard of your city. The latter gentleman did not make any extended remarks at that time, but printed a letter in the Press. Mr. Williams, however, occupied the greater part of the afternoon in opposing the measure. His remarks did not change the minds of the committee. The bill was reported and passed without division and from $12,000 to $15,000 a year saved.

Those who noticed the opposition of Mr. Williams at the time said it was because either as an investor or a party interested in State securities, he opposed the change of the law, since, if it was kept in force, the price of State bonds would appreciate, and instead of commanding 5 or 6 per cent. premium, they would be worth 10 or 12. I do not pretend to know what influenced Mr. Williams to emerge from his seclusion to oppose this measure, but it strikes me that one of the two men in the State who did not deem it worth the while of the Legislature to save $10,000 or $15,000 a year is not the man to beat Selden Connor as a candidate for Governor.

KENNEBEC.

WHO IS OSMAN PASHA?

ANOTHER NAME SUGGESTED.

Mr. Editor—The identity of Osman Pasha of the Turkish army appears to be a matter of dispute and conjecture in Western Europe and in this country. By many it is asserted that the Turkish General is no other than the notorious Marshal Bazaine, and a story is now going the rounds in this country that the Pasha is undoubtly General Kirkwood of Kentucky.

Permit me to add another name to the numerous list of candidates: that of Gen. Gustave Cluseret, the late Communist Secretary of War. Cluseret escaped from the massacres of Paris and lived at London and Geneva until about two years ago when he took his departure ostensibly for Persia to reorganize its army. As Gen. Klapka, the distinguished Hungarian and Agitator, has been connected with the War Department of Turkey, it is more than probable that Cluseret was invited to take part, as the two men are warm friends. They both served with Garibaldi in his Sicilian campaign and were highly esteemed by him. Cluseret could have no scruples in defending the Turks as he was one of the three officers who led the desperate assault on the Mamelon Vert which led to the fall of the Malakoff fort and the capture of Sevastopol. In this fight Cluseret was severely wounded and his two companions killed. Cluseret is a man of extraordinary ability and audacity and the operations around Plevna accord more with the man's character than with the others thus far mentioned.

The mystery, we think, will soon be solved and we doubt very much whether the name of Bazaine appears in the solution.

HARRISON'S PERISTALTIC LOZENGES.

POSITIVE CURE FOR

Costiveness, Dyspepsia, Piles,

Oppression after Eating, Headache, Dizziness.

For thirty years these Lozenges have retained the confidence of the Medical Profession and the public generally, in spite of all competitors or imitators. They are the most effectual remedy for HABITUAL COSTIVENESS and its results, viz: Piles, Indigestion, Headache, Dizziness, Languor, Oppression of Food, Heartburn, Flatulence, Bad Taste in the mouth, Torpid Liver, &c., &c.

Females who cannot endure strong purgatives find these Lozenges admirably suited to the many complaints incident to their sex, by restoring nature and preventing periodical pains and obstructions. They are also just the thing for children suffering with worms, being a sure cure, and so agreeable to take as the most pleasant confection.

Travellers find the Lozenges just what they need, as they are so compact and inodorous that they may be carried in the vest pocket, and as an aperient or laxative they are unequalled.

Testimony of a Boston Merchant.

BOSTON, May 19, 1865.

This certifies that I have used Dr. Harrison's PERISTALTIC LOZENGES, and after suffering a long time with the Piles I experienced an entire cure, and recommend their use to all afflicted in the same way, without reserve, or especially if attended with any constipation.

R. B. FORBES.

Messrs E. S. Harrison & Co. Gents—The business of the line having increased very much, I am obliged to confine myself very closely to office work, and I have in consequence been much troubled with constipation. I find in your Lozenges just what I need, not a strong purgative, but an efficient help to nature.

President Loring followed, discussing the same subject. He paid a high tribute to the farmers of Maine for intelligence and enterprise. He eulogized the Maine Jerseys working oxen horses and sheep as unexcelled

H C Burleigh of Fairfield followed, speaking especially against the evils of horse racing. Mr Loring agreed with him but thought it could be made innocent and entertaining as well as profitable to fairs

Chas F Jose of Portland spoke in favor of horse culture.

Col. Needham stated that the relative small representation of stock from other States was owing to the fact that railroads had not transported so cheaply as usual—Heretofore all railroads have transported free. This year they have not.

PENNSYLVANIA

A Very Proper Investigation

PHILADELPHIA, Sept 6 Two homoeopathic physicians recently certified that an inmate of the colored persons' home was insane and should be removed to the almshouse. This certificate required the signature of the district physician, but he being an allopath declined to certify that the homeopaths were physicians of good standing. While he thus delayed matters the patient became violent, jumped from a window and was killed; and now an official investigation is being made

The Coal Miners Strike

NEW YORK, Sept 6 Pennsylvania specials say that at Breme Hill, the suburbs of Scranton, workmen under military escort to their homes last evening were abused by a crowd and the soldiers made a dash and arrested eight disturbers. Good authority states that the strike will not last much longer. The Pennsylvania Coal Co. are inclined to ... and it is believed that they will vote to resume work at Wilkesbarre. Half way compromises are being considered by both sides with prospects of early resumption. The 14th regiment of militia from Pittsburg, returned home yesterday. Company E. of the 20th Philadelphia regiment, mutinied because their captain was compelled to resign but discipline will probably prevail

FOREIGN NEWS.

THE EASTERN WAR.

Reported Discontent of the Russian Army

LONDON, Sept 6 The Daily News telegram from Tiflis states that the Russians have entirely dismantled Ardahan which is now an open town. Gen Komoroffsky withdrawn most of his troops from there to the main body of the army leaving only nine rifle battalions in the place.

The News Bucharest correspondent says that strong dissatisfaction is displayed in the Russian army at the incapacity of the Russian staff especially of Gen Levitsky, who is acting as chief. The man to whom all eyes are now turned is Gen Dragomeroff who is wounded but not so severely as to prevent his taking active direction of the campaign. The discontent is greatly augmented by Prince Charles, a foreigner without military experience appointed to the command of an active army before Plevna

A Remonstrance

The Times' Belgrade special announces several members of the diplomatic corps made separate remonstrances to Prince Milan in reference to his war preparations. The Austrian and Russian representatives, however did not join in these remonstrances to which the Prince is stated to have answered evasively.

A Heavy Deficit

PERA ... Sept 6—Evening According to Turkish financial estimates, a deficit of £11,000 000 is anticipated for the years '77 and '78 which must be raised by special taxation.

Serious Position of Opposing Armies

LONDON Sept 6. The Russian successes at Lovatz places Osman Pasha in an awkward position of having a hostile force on both flanks. Either defeat at Plevna or attempted withdrawal might result in the destruction of his army unless the Russians are compelled to weaken their forces on that side in order to meet Mehemet Ali's advance from Rasgrad. The latter seems to place the Czarowitch's army in a position very similar to Osman Pasha's. If Turkish accounts may be trusted, the Turkish force has crossed the Lom and reached the neighborhood of Abertini, while another force has crossed the Karal Lom to Palomarke. These corps are understood to be operating against Biela, but jeopardize the Russian campaign east of Jankton, as well as communication with Tiernova

QUARTERLY MEETING The Free Baptist Quarterly meeting at the Essex Street Church is progressing with increasing interest. Rev. O Pitts, of Corinth, preached an able sermon Wednesday evening. UNITY HALL Yesterday we had the pleasure of visiting Unity Hall which has been undergoing extensive changes during the past summer, under the direction of Rev A M Knapp who designed the work and executed a large proportion of it. The lower portion of the wall is of a chocolate color and the upper is of a delicate green tint, with a border of flowers—The large pictures are suspended from the moulding and the smaller pictures are set in a line extending all the way around the hall about five feet above the floor. The pictures are nearly all those of classical subjects to become familiar with which is in some measure an art education, though they may not at first be generally appreciated. Those which are most valuable for study are placed in the panels. They comprise some of the best examples of Greek and Roman Statuary the Florence Bronze Doors, the Elgin Marbles, M Angelo's 'David and Moses,' the Tombs of the Medici, some of the principal figures from the Ceiling of the Sistine Chapel, Cellini Perseus and Raphael's Loggie of the Vatican. Among the framed pictures are Raphael's 'St M...' the Knaus Madonna, views of the Roman Forum the Pantheon, St Peters and the Castle of St Angelo, Giotto's Tower, Giotto's Dante, the Triumph of Germanicus, and two very beautiful Swiss views. 2 38 CLASS

Of the ten entries seven started, Anodyne having the pole, Lady Young second, Nellie Sherman third, Nigger Baby fourth Honest Lyon fifth, Peter sixth, Emery Fearnaught seventh

First Heat—At the third time scoring they got the word. At the first quarter Nigger Baby shot ahead pressed closely by Anodyne and Emery Fearnaught, the other horses lagging behind. These positions were retained throughout the heat. Nigger Baby 1st, Anodyne 2d Fearnaught 3d, Peter 4th Lady Young 5th, Honest Lyon 6th, Nellie Sherman 7th Time 2 38¼

Second Heat—After a long and tedious scoring they got the word, Nigger Baby pole Anodyne 2d, Fearnaught 3d, Peter 4th, Lady Young 5th, Lyon 6th and Nellie Sherman 7th. Peter soon placed himself even with Nigger Baby, Anodyne going behind a few lengths. Peter soon broke going way back. The rest of the seven horses were trotting good and not a great way behind. On the third quarter Anodyne shot ahead, taking the pole away from Nigger Baby and crossing the wire a head's length in advance thus winning the heat Nigger Baby 2d, Peter 3d, Fearnaught 4th, Lady Young 5th, Nellie Sherman 6th Honest Lyon was given the 7th on account of running

Third Heat—At the 6th time scoring they got the word, Anodyne took the lead closely followed by Peter Nigger Baby and Young Lyon. They retained these positions throughout the first half mile. On the last half Peter, Nigger Baby and Honest Lyon hotly contested for the second place, Sherman and Lady Young being somewhat in the rear as they passed under the wire. Anodyne was slightly in advance, Honest Lyon 2d, Nigger Baby 3d, Peter 4th Lady Young 5th, Fearnaught 6th. Time 2:30¾

Fourth Heat—After a tedious scoring they finally got the word, Anodyne holding the pole, Honest 2d, Nigger Baby 3d, Peter 4th, Lady Young 5th, Fearnaught 6th, Sherman 7th. On the first quarter Anodyne was leading, followed closely by Nigger Baby and Peter, Lyon going several lengths to the rear by a bad break. On the last half mile Anodyne was still leading, Peter and Nigger Baby alternating for second position, the other horses trailing along behind. As they went under the wire Anodyne led by about half a length, thus winning the heat and race. Peter 2d, Nigger Baby 3d, Lady Young 4th, Fearnaught 5th, Honest Lyon 6th, Nellie Sherman drawn. Time 2.36¼

The second race was for the

2.30 CLASS.

Of the seven horses entered but four appeared and were given positions as follows Walter, the pole Buchanan second, Black Rose third, and Phil Sheridan fourth

First heat.—At the first turn Buchanan fell back a little Sheridan taking his place. At the end of the first half mile Walter kept the lead with Buchanan a close second, Sheridan third, and Rose in the rear. As they came down the home stretch it was neck and neck between Walter and Buchanan but the enormous stride of the latter horse put him under the wire a length ahead. Walter 2d, Black Rose 3d, Phil Sheridan 4th Time 2 33¼

Second Heat —This was a finely contested heat. After four times scoring they got the word Sheridan slightly in advance. At the first turn Sheridan took the pole and by good trotting had kept it for three quarters of a mile which he was overtaken and passed by Walter who on the home stretch was passed by Buchanan, who won the heat in 2:31 Sheridan 2d Walter 3d, Black Rose 4th

Third Heat —The second time scoring they got the word. On the first quarter Sheridan forged ahead and took the pole Buchanan and Walter closely following, Black Rose some four lengths behind. They kept these positions during the next half mile. On the last quarter to the surprise of everybody Black Rose suddenly shot ahead and all endeavors of the other horses to catch her were of no avail; Black Rose crossed the wire 1st Walter 2d Buchanan 3d Sheridan 4th Time 2 31

Fourth Heat —This heat was not very interesting. Black Rose had the pole Walter 2 Buchanan 3 Sheridan 4 ... were about two lengths apart. These positions were retained throughout the whole heat. Black Rose 1st Walter 2 Buchanan 3 Sheridan 4th Time 2 31

During the scoring Sheridan made a quick turn upsetting the sulky throwing his driver Mr Bailey, to the ground. The horse then started to run but was caught by one of the grooms before doing any damage. Mr B struck upon his knees and arm, straining him some but he quickly resumed his seat

Fifth Heat—After considerable delay, occasioned by the non appearance of Sheridan the heat began without the usual troublesome scoring. Sheridan took the lead and succeeded in keeping it until just the close when Walter stretched ahead taking the heat, with Sheridan 2d, Black Rose 3d and Young Buchanan 4th. This was by far the most interesting heat. Sheridan Black Rose and Walter pressing one another closely throughout. Sheridan was ruled out of the race not having taken one heat in five Time 2 36

Sixth Heat—After the usual scoring they got the word, Walter having the pole. Black Rose 2d Buchanan 3d. On the first quarter Black Rose took the lead, Walter 2d Buchanan 3d. They retained their positions throughout the heat. Black Rose thus winning the heat and race, Walter 2d Buchanan 3d Time 2 47

SCHENCK'S PULMONIC SYRUP, FOR THE CURE OF CONSUMPTION, COUGHS AND COLDS

The great virtue of this medicine is that it ripens the matter and throws it out of the system, purifies the blood, and thus effects a cure

SCHENCK'S SEA WEED TONIC FOR THE CURE OF DYSPEPSIA, INDIGESTION, &C

The Tonic produces a healthy action of the stomach, creating an appetite, forming chyle, and curing the most obstinate cases of Indigestion.

SCHENCK'S MANDRAKE PILLS, FOR THE CURE OF LIVER COMPLAINT, &C

These pills are alterative, and produce a healthy action of the liver without the least danger, as they are free from calomel, and yet more efficacious in restoring a healthy action of the liver.

These remedies are a certain cure for Consumption, as the pulmonic Syrup ripens the matter and purifies the blood. The Mandrake Pills act upon the liver, create a healthy bile, and remove all diseases of the liver, often a cause of Consumption. The Sea Weed Tonic gives tone and strength to the stomach, makes a good digestion, and enables the organs to form good blood; and thus creates a healthy circulation of healthy blood. The combined action of these medicines, as thus explained, will cure every case of Consumption if taken in time, and the use of the medicines persevered in.

Dr. Schenck is professionally at his principal office, corner SIXTH and ARCH STS., Philadelphia, every Monday, where all letters for advice must be addressed. Schenck's medicines for sale by all Druggists

TRUE ECONOMY is not in buying the lowest price articles. The best is cheapest. So with the fine cultivated and plantation grown spices imported by Messrs. Pinckney, Jackson & Co. of London and New York. I have just received a shipment of these goods and would specially invite the attention of all consumers to them. These spices are not only absolutely pure, but are without a doubt the finest ever imported into this country. I confidently recommend them as being really of unusual merit.

To the Honorable Judge of Probate for the County of Penobscot.

The undersigned, Guardian of Lettie M. and Nellie M. Miller, minor heirs of Samuel N. Miller, late of Bangor, in said County, deceased, respectfully represents that said deceased died possessed of Personal Estate, an Inventory of which has been duly returned into the Probate Office; that he left no widow and the circumstances of said minors render it necessary that they should have some of said personal estate than they are entitled to on a distribution thereof, ... the elder, who is more than fourteen years of age, from ill health unable to labor.
He therefore prays that your Honor would grant them such allowance out of said Personal estate as in your discretion you may determine necessary and proper.

To the Honorable Judge of Probate for the County of Penobscot.

The undersigned, administrator with will annexed of the estate of Michael Dougherty, late of Bangor, in said County, deceased, respectfully represents that the goods and chattels, rights and credits of said deceased are not sufficient to pay his just debts and charges of administration, by the sum of one hundred and twenty two dollars, or more.
Wherefore your petitioner prays your Honor to grant him a license to sell, at public or private sale, and convey all of the late homestead of said deceased, situate on "Church Lane," so called, in said Bangor, as the residue would be greatly depreciated by a sale of any portion thereof, (including the reversion of the widow's dower therein, if any) to satisfy said debts, expenses of sale, and charges of administration.
Said real estate is the same described in a deed recorded in the Registry of Deeds of said County.

LETTER CARRIERS.

All letters are delivered free by carriers when addressed to street and number. People should inform their correspondents of above and have their letters addressed accordingly.
Persons leaving their address at the General Delivery can also have their letters sent, but it is much more convenient to have the street and number on, and they will be delivered earlier than if the same is put on at the office. Carriers make two deliveries daily, the first trip supplying the extremes of their routes.
Collections are made morning and evening in season for important mails—the down town boxes fifteen and the up town boxes thirty minutes before closing mails at the office.
Holidays the Carrier's Window will be open for the delivery of letters from 8½ to 9½ A. M., and from 8 to 8½ P. M. Sundays from 8½ to 9½ A. M.
Any irregularities in the Carriers' department should be reported to the office.

ENVELOPES.

No additional charge will be made for printing the name and request to return, across the left hand upper corner of the envelope furnished by the Post Office Department, (samples of which may be seen at the Carrier's window) when ordered in lots of not less than 500.
A request for the return of a letter to the writer, if unclaimed within thirty days, or less, written or printed, with the writer's name, post office and State, across the left end of the envelope, on the face side, will be complied with.
The public are earnestly recommended to procure Stamped envelopes with printed return request, as the expense is less, and letters thus endorsed, if not delivered to the person addressed, are returned to the writer free of charge.
First class envelopes of above furnished at $32 80 per thousand.

Stamps cut from Stamped Envelopes cannot be used to prepay postage. The use of such Stamps is punishable by a fine of fifty dollars.
Stamped Envelopes, spoiled in directing, are redeemed at this office.

To the Honorable JOHN A. PETERS, one of the Justices of the Supreme Judicial Court of said State.
Humbly shows the undersigned, Trustees of the Orono Savings Bank, of Orono, in the County of Penobscot in said State, and the State Bank Examiner, that said Savings Bank is insolvent by reason of losses, and by depreciation in the value of a part of its assets without the fault of the Trustees thereof; that your petitioners request your Honor to appoint a time for the examination of the affairs of said bank, and cause notice thereof to be given to all parties interested, in such manner as your Honor may prescribe, and that upon an examination of its assets and liabilities and such other evidence produced at the time as your Honor shall be satisfied of the facts above set forth, and that said Corporation has not exceeded its powers nor failed to comply with any of the rules, restrictions and conditions provided by law, that your Honor may see fit, if you should deem it for the interest of the depositors therein and the public, by proper decree to reduce the deposits in and of each depositor so as to divide such loss pro rata among the depositors, thereby rendering the Corporation solvent so that its further proceedings shall not be hazardous to the public or those having or placing funds in its custody, and to take such other orders or decrees as may be authorized or required by Section 5 of Chapter 218, of the Public Laws of 1877, approved February ..., 1877, and as in duty bound will ever pray.
